Sardar Bhagwan Singh University Balawala, Dehradun IV assignment, M. Pharm II semester School of Pharmaceutical Sciences and Technology M. Pharm Pharmacognosy (1st year) II Sem Subject- Indian System of Medicine (MPG203T) Total Marks 30 Submission Date 18.04.2020

Attempt all question

(1) What country did Naturopathy as a whole medical system originate?

a) Germanyb) Greecec) Australiad) China

(2) What is NOT one of the underlying principles of Naturopathy?

A) Treat the cause b) Prevention

c) Physician As Teacher d) Treating the symptoms of disease

(3) The success of Naturopathic Medicine is based on:

a) Correcting body imbalances b) Finding out all of one's past medical history

c) Providing symptomatic relief d) How often one exercises

(4) Which methodology does Naturopathy not cover?a)Chiropractic Adjustmentb)Oncologyc)Massaged)Acupuncture

(5) The metals and minerals are studied under the following heads, in siddha system of medicine

a) Metals (Ulogam) b) Minerals (Karasaaram)

c) Mercury and Arsenic compound (Pashanam) d) all of above

Section B: True False questions (1 Mark each)

- 1. In Siddha medicine the use of metals and minerals are more predominant in comparison to other Indian traditional medicine systems (true / false)
- 2. Raw drugs obtained from animal kingdom are not used for medicinal preparations in Siddha.

(true / false)

3. Siddhar Nagarjuna introduced the use of mercury and its compounds to the Ayurvedic system

(true / false)

(true / false)

- 4. Detoxification not only changes the toxic nature of the ingredients, but it also converts the ingredients into potent to treat the diseases (true / false)
- 5. One of basic principle of naturopathy is "body heal itself"

Section C: Short answer questions (5Mark each)

- Q. No. 1 Write a short note on raw drugs Dhatu/ Jeevam in Siddha system of medicine
- Q. No. 2 Write a note on detoxification process of metals siddha system

Section D: Long answer question (10 mark)

Q. No. 1 writes a detail note on basic principle of naturopathy