

Sardar Bhagwan Singh University, Balawala, Dehradun
School of Pharmaceutical Sciences and Technology
Ninth Assignment
M. Pharm Pharmacognosy I Year (II Sem)
Subject: Indian System of Medicine (MPG 203T)

Total Marks: 30

Submission Time: May 27; 23:59 PM

Section A: Multiple choice questions (1 Mark Each)

1. 100 sq feet manufacturing space is required for which ayurvedic dosage form
a. Pisti b. Pills c. Kajal d. All of above
2. 100 % GMP compliance of ayurveda siddha unani manufacturing units is in
a. Delhi b. Gujarat c. Haryana d. a & b
3. Aqua crystalisata is a
a. Siddha system remedy b. Ayurvedic system remedy
c. Homeopathic system remedy d. Unani system remedy
4. Dynamisation is another name of which method
a. Dilution b. Succussion c. Potentiation d. None
5. 1: 10³⁰ dilution in a sample is equivalent to _____ potency.
a. 30 c b. 15 c c. 15cH d. b & c both

Section B: True / False / Fill ups (1 Mark Each)

1. 540 lux light is required at all inspection points as per WHO.
2. Admixture of the two liquids when subjected to the vigorous shaking with an impact known as _____.
3. Sucrose granules of _____ diameter have been common in the UK. They are also called as _____.
4. LM method represents potencies based on serial dilutions of 1:50 000 at each level.
5. In reference to total units, a smaller number of GMP complying units are found in _____.

Section C: Short answer questions (5 Marks Each)

1. Explain good manufacturing practices of Indian system of medicine in detail.
2. Write in brief about good agricultural practices as per WHO.

Section D: Long answer question (10 Marks)

1. Discuss the challenges observed in monitoring the safety of herbal medicines in regulation, quality assurance and control.