Vol XIV, ISSUE 10, MAY 2019

Editorial

Goodbyes are not forever Goodbyes are not the end. It is time of the year to bid farewell to our final year students. The college farewell is the most anticipated event by all the youngsters as it marks the end of their carefree college life and the beginning of their competitive professional world. The juniors made this moment very special and memorable by organizing a grand farewell party. We wish all the final year students best of luck for their future endeavors and hope that each one achieve bright and successful careers in which SBS has always played a pivotal role through Campus Placements Drives by renowned industries. Further in this month a vegetable seeds distribution "Har Ghar, sabji, Har ghar phool" was also organized by the students of School of Agricultural Sciences and Forestry for bringing awareness about the benefits of organic farming.

The other features of this issue includes activities like Blood Donation Camp, Placement Drive by Avantor Performance Material Ltd., Jubilant Generic Ltd, & Jubilant Chemsys.

The Publication and creative writing society also wishes luck to the students for their upcoming end semester exams.

"The future belongs to those, who believe in the beauty of their dreams"

We wish our readers, happy reading this edition of SBSTIMES!!
