Editorial

Greetings!!

As the month of November showcase the festivities all around, so it is much more special for SBS University as it marks the birth anniversary of our beloved Founder Director Late Sardar Gurcharan Singh Ji. He was a visionary leader and with his unsurpassed supervision and guidance led this University to achieve yet another level of success in the field of education. This year SBS family celebrated his 80th birth anniversary with spell bound creative & cultural activities. Besides this month experienced several other activities viz., 'SAPTRANG', Inter House Competitions, Physiotherapy Workshop, National Pharmacy Week, Project Raunak.

On one hand the University was experiencing so much festivities and celebrations, while on other there was an anguish feeling as someone very special for the University was leaving. SBS University bid farewell to Prof. F.C. Garg who served the organization at several higher levels.

So altogether this month has given us mix feelings.

We wish our reader a joyful reading of this edition crafted with sundry activities held in the month of November.

Message from Chancellor

Professional and Technical education scenario nationally and internationally is changing at alarming pace and educational institutions like ours are destined to play a vital role in this evolution. We should be prepared to lead the change. I assure you, we are on the verge and ready.

As an educator, I have been involved with administrative, financial and advisory positions earlier. Now have the privilege of taking up as the Chancellor of SBSU, I recognize and accept the responsibility of leading the Institution to greater heights.

It's my heartening vision to create a bright future for the entire SBSU fraternity- its Faculty, Staff and Students. I am immensely ecstatic in expressing my conviction that SBS University shall be the harbinger of new era in the domain of higher education to further enrich the traditions.

My heartiest welcome to all our new students in SBSU, with excellent faculty, infrastructure and placements I realize here to see your future take shape in front of you. We all at SBSU will together manifest this for you."Be Glorious and Dazzling like Sun"
