Vol XVII, ISSUE 07, JANUARY 2022

Editorial

Greetings to all!

January was named for the Roman god Janus, known as the protector of gates and doorways who symbolize beginnings and endings. Janus is depicted with two faces, one looking into the past, the other with the ability to see into the future. What a fitting symbol for this first day of the year; this month is our door into the new year. This is the month of the new door of the beginnings of the new year with new things, possibilities and provides the ability to see all things past and future.

As this beginning month of the year started marking the festivities & celebrations for Lohri, Makar Sakranti, Republic Day and Guru Gobind Singh Jayanti has drenched the positivity all around giving hope for 'ALL IS AND WILL BE WELL'. This issue of SBS times will give an insight of the festivities and activities at SBS University in the month of January Wishing all the readers a joyful reading and a very Happy New Year.

Right to Vote

The Right to Vote is such a simple yet complex right known to every citizen in India. But what many citizens are not aware of is about the inherent value/ importance it holds. The Right to Vote is available in our country to almost everyone equally at 18 years of age irrespective of their religion, gender, education or literacy level. Voting is a fundamental right of every citizen who is of sound mind in India. It helps them to choose the leaders of tomorrow to contribute towards the country's development. It helps for a better India.

government. In this way, it makes the nation's government system work. By voting people can choose their representatives in the government. The chosen government takes care of the people's needs and develops and executes various schemes, initiatives for the benefit of its people and the country. Reasons to voteIt's our right One such reason to vote is that it's our right. It can be claimed by us. It's an individual opinion to vote for the person one likes.

Basically, in simple words, voting is a process that enables the citizens the right to choose their own
