Vol XV, ISSUE 08, MARCH 2020

Editorial

The month of March signifies the onset of spring and bids goodbye to the gloom of winter. The month of March also witnesses “Holi” a festival of color signifying the win of good over evil. However this year we have come across a new challenge in form of COVID-19. A pandemic caused by SARS- COV2 spreading throughout the world. With the escalating cases of COVID-19 in India too, this month saw a nation wide lockdown being imposed by the Government of India. The Covid-19 pandemic has also made the learning challenge more complicated and unmasked the new face of education. To ensure that students regain the lost ground, we here at SBS are all working to assure the continuity of learning for all through online teaching. Continuing with the tradition of SBS Times, this month's issue is being released with articles & poem from students & Staff and hope of a better and brighter future of all the readers.

“Nothing in life is to be feared, it is only to be understood. Now is the time to understand more, so that we may fear less.” - Marie Curie

Wish you all a very happy reading .....

Student Column

This period of uncertainty is like an unimaginably difficult chapter of the book of life which was always waiting there, to be read one fine day. That's why this chapter have the most number of highlighted paragraphs, which are to be referred while reading the remaining book.

These paragraphs may be of variable lengths. The long ones comprising of things we learnt the hard way. They will be the ones with our boldest decisions of finally letting go, of the stuff that hurt us badly, it taught us to choose maybe the choices we could have made a little earlier. The short ones may comprise of the stuff we were meant to learn easily maybe like making a new desert. This uncertainty, if we want it to, can take us towards the path of certainly framing our lives to newness.
