Editorial

In the depth of winter, I finally learned that there was in me an invincible summer - Albert Camus.

The wintry month of December is the last month of the year. The beginning of this month is marked by World's AIDS day. Indian Navy Day and Vijay Diwas is also celebrated in this month to honour our brave hearts of our defence sector. Christmas an annual festival commemorating the birth of Jesus Christ, is observed in December with an atmosphere of carols and glee this year comes to an end and everyone set to welcome the new year. To celebrate the spirit of this month various events like Felicitation of Lt. Jyoti Nainwal was also done at University's premises to honour her unparalleled achievement. Inter house Debate Competition, Cricket Match was also organised at SBSU. With all the warmth we wish you a happy reading of this edition of SBS times.

Silver lining

There is much of confusion
No one knows what's really true
About what's wrong between me and you...
Rumours are coming down the line
We've found no cure no hope that everything will be fine...
But if everyone helps us cope
We are soon going to get hope
To think everything is sorted out this time
If we happily and willingly stay quarantine

To us cure really matters
We can't stay like this everytime
And would love to find a way
To hear everything is sorted out this time
If we obey and cope to be quarantined
To end the pain we all feel.
And to get completely healed...
