

Operation MUKTI- An Initiative of Uttarakhand Police was held at SBS University Dehradun

Operation MUKTI- An initiative of Uttarakhand Police against child begging was held at Sardar Bhagwan Singh University, Dehradun on Tuesday 30.08.2022. On this occasion, Nodal Officers of Operation MUKTI, Shri. Anil Joshi (Deputy Superintendent of Police), Shri. Hemant Khanduri (Incharge-Child Trafficking) and Ms. Anita Negi (Sub-Inspector) were present. Prof. Veerma Ram (Officiating Vice Chancellor), Mr. Zorawar Singh (Manager), and Ms. Urmi Chaurasia (Controller of Examination) welcomed all the dignitaries with flower bouquets.

In 2017, Mr. Ashok Kumar (Director General of Police, Uttarakhand) took the initiative to motivate economically weak, destitute children to move on the path of education. The motto of the campaign is “Say No to Begging, Yes to Education.”

During the campaign, Shri. Hemant Khanduri said that “Education is the fundamental right of every child - It is our duty that no child should be deprived of this right.” Shri. Anil Joshi interacted with the students and said that the innate power of every child extended to the sky high. Education is the only way to become successful in life. Ms. Anita Negi mentioned that by this campaign we can reduce the crime rate in near future.

Mr. Krishan Rawat (Registrar) thanked all the dignitaries for visiting the University and assured the cooperation of the University in making this initiative a great success.

The program was anchored by Ms. Falguni Anil (BPT, 3rd Year). All the faculty members and students were present during the program.
